HOW TO START A TEAM:

Are you passionate about addressing human trafficking in your community, but don't know how or where to start? We suggest you gather together a team and walk through the following steps together.

BEING LEARNING
DOING

STEP 1: CONTACT US

Write to Kevin (National Director) at kevin@setfreemovement.org OR Katie (Director of Communications & Operations) at katie@setfreemovement.org to let us know you're interested in starting a Set Free Movement team. We will send you documents to help with the following steps and are here to support you every step of the way. Also, sign up for our newsletter: setfreemovement.com/connect/

STEP 2: GATHER A TEAM

Bring together other like-minded individuals from your church, workplace, school, or community to form a team. Even starting out with 2 or 3 other committed people who meet regularly is a great way to begin. You don't need to start off by DOING. Focus first on BEING together: praying, discussing, sharing, connecting relationally.

STEP 3: LEARN TOGETHER

Begin studying slavery—not only internationally, but at the local level, too. Look into your own community and identify ways that human trafficking might be a symptom of deeper problems (ie: addictions, racism, poverty, abuse, etc.) We can help you find resources.

STEP 4: NETWORK WITH OTHERS

Get to know other anti-trafficking or relevant groups and partner with them in ways that make sense. There's no need to re-create the wheel—and no way you can do this alone!

STEP 5: STRATEGIZE & ENGAGE

Every step previously informs and leads you to begin long-term planning with your team. The entire process is cyclical—never stop praying, learning, networking, and engaging.

WHATEVER YOU DO ... DO IT IN THE DIRECTION OF FREEDOM!
